

The Daily Bulletin

1-19-12

The Bark is accepting letters to the editor. Please drop off your letters to room 143.

If there are any students interested in going to see a performance of Macbeth at Wharton Center, please see Mrs. Collins in room 111. The play is on Friday, February 24th and the cost is $13. There are a limited number of tickets available so first come, first serve.

Attn: Freshmen – Don't forget to order your class ring. Jostens is here today to take orders during lunch.

Attn: Seniors – Don't forget your Jostens graduations order is due today. Jostens will be here during lunch to collect orders and at conference tonight.

Jostens will also be back January 25th at lunch for ring and graduation orders.

Students planning on taking AP tests in May – if you would qualify for free or reduced lunch the cost of the exam will be reduced. If you have not filled out a free or reduced form to be approved for this year it must be completed by February 16th. Please turn the forms in to Mrs. Hubert in the office.

Interact members! To decorate for the pink out basketball games Friday please be at the gym at 3:30 to help! If you can't attend Friday then please stay after school today to work on posters. Interact members will also be needed to collect donations during the game. See Anna Archey with questions.

NHS members – remember that conferences are tonight if you signed up to work. If you can't work your shift you must find an alternate.

Senior shirt order forms are available in the office.

From the Guidance Office

Students interested in taking classes at LCC for next year need the yellow application form completed and turned in to the guidance office by Friday, Feb 3rd.

The representative from ITT Tech will not be here today due to the weather.

Athletics

Friday's basketball game is PINK OUT. If you wear pink you get in for $5. Two for $10!

The following students should report to the office: